

Consolidation Plans All But Abandoned

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Education Commissioner A. W. Ford says more urgent problems will probably keep educators too busy to launch a new drive immediately for school consolidation.

Ford said the more pressing problems are concern over new, tougher federal desegregation guidelines and the natural interest of seeking higher teacher salaries.

Ford said Saturday that the recent Arkansas Education Association consolidation proposal probably failed because of concern over desegregation.

"Many large districts with only a few Negroes would have to absorb smaller districts with a higher concentration of Negroes," Ford said.

"This caused some to oppose the proposal who would normally have supported it," he said.

The commissioner questioned for a citizens' group to launch a consolidation drive at this time.

"It would require a significant selling job to put the idea across," Ford said. "And it might split education forces at a time when they need to be united."

The commissioner said he was not opposing consolidation but that this was not the time for an aggressive move.

The AEA had proposed supporting an initiative act which would have forced consolidation of all schools with fewer than 400 students.

By the time an AEA council finished work on the proposal, it had been amended to force consolidation of districts with fewer than 2,000 students.

The amendment virtually killed the proposal.

Ford said the amendment made the proposal neither practical nor worthy of consideration.

Ford said $35 million in federal funds is involved in the desegregation problem and that 20 per cent of the operating budgets of school districts comes from federal funds.

Ford said he was not satisfied with the new desegregation guidelines but that school districts had no choice but to comply or lose funds.

The commissioner said that if educators get into a squabble over consolidation the political strength of education forces will be weakened.

"A significant division in 1967 will damage the schools' chances of getting the significant increase in tax revenues that we expect," Ford said.

Basore Brings Campaign to This Area

Joe Basore is in Hope & other South Arkansas communities this week, carrying on his campaign for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor of Arkansas.

Basore is a native of Berryville, and was the first Democratic candidate to file for the lieutenant governor's office this year.

His platform advocates giving the lieutenant governor broader responsibilities than the office now requires.

Basore is nationally experienced in tourist promotion, as a vice president of the company that has developed the resort-retirement community of Cherokee Village, in Sharp County. The company presently is developing a similar community at Bella Vista, on a 14,000-acre tract in the Ozark hills of Benton County.

Basore is a graduate of the University of Arkansas and is active in Democratic party activities. He is a kinsman of the late Pat Neff, who taught school in South Arkansas and was later governor of Texas and president of Baylor University at Waco.

Basore is married and has one son. He resides in Cherokee Village.

Tardy Tax Returns

Early one April, leaving home on an extended business trip, a man handed his wife their income tax returns.

"Remember to mail these before the 15th," he said.

She did remember—two months later. When the government added a penalty for tardiness, the man protested that it had been "just an innocent mistake." But in a court test, the penalty was upheld. The court said tax returns are too important a duty to be so lightly overlooked.

There is good reason for the annual scramble by taxpayers to get their returns in before the deadline. The penalty can be stiff—5 percent per month, up to 25 percent of the total tax.

To be sure, some excuses are good enough to ward off a penalty. You will be forgiven if your tardiness was due to what the law calls "reasonable cause."

In one case, the tax collector had no record of having received a man's return at all. Yet, evidence proved that it had been deposited in the post office on time, in a properly stamped, properly addressed envelope. A court held that no penalty for tardiness could be imposed.

"This would not be the first time," observed the judge, "that a collector had lost a return."

In another case, both the taxpayer and his attorney—the only other party familiar with the situation—were totally incapacitated by illness at tax time. Again: no penalty.

But lesser excuses won't do. For example, prior illness, not incapacitating as of tax time, does not justify a late return.

Nor does the mere fact that you don't happen to like the way the government is spending your money. Thus, penalties for tardiness were imposed on a businessman who resented Uncle Sam's "wasteful" habits, and on a minister who didn't want his money spent for war.

Why is the government so strict? That question was raised by a man who blamed his tardiness on the fact that other expenses had left him short of money. The court gave him this reply:

"True, such situations may require sacrifice, but the government exists only by the sacrifice of its citizens. Taxes may seem oppressive, but taxes must be paid if governments are to endure."

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — As in all official biographies of movie stars, Rock Hudson's does not include the year of his birth.

He is quick to supply the information: "I'm 40." Rock Hudson at 40 shows no signs of serious deterioration, physically or in his career. In fact, he appears spectacularly handsome, quietly self-assured. "I don't feel any different," he admitted. "I've been hearing for years that unusual things happen to you after you turn 40. Nothing like that has hit me yet. Ask me later."

"Being 40 doesn't bother me. It doesn't seem any different from the 30s, and I enjoyed them immensely. I'd say the 30s were the best years, the teens next, and the 20s next. They've all been pretty good."

Rock's life is changing, even if he doesn't feel it. The change is in his career status: his present film, "Tobruk," is the last under his contract to Universal.

It has been 18 years since Roy Fitzgerald of Winnetka, Ill., arrived with the new name of Rock Hudson at Universal City. "The first thing they wanted to do was change my name to Rock," he recalled. "I was put in a big office in the publicity building and the entire staff fired questions at me. I would have bolted from the room, except they had me in a corner, and I couldn't get out."

To jog his memory of those early years, I produced his official biography, which includes a list of all his pictures. He shuddered noticeably. The record showed that he made eight film in his first 18 months at Universal, nearly all of them remarkably forgettable.

Rock's plans, now that he's free? "I don't have any. I think I'll take a vacation." With three unreleased films — "Blindfold," "Seconds" and "Tobruk" — he can afford to.

Engagement Announced

Miss Sherry Suzette Fontaine

The Saratoga home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fontaine, parents of the bride-elect, will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Sherry Suzette Fontaine to Darrel Truman Kitchens, son of Mrs. Irma Kitchens of Dierks and the late Mr. Ted Kitchens. The wedding will take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon Saturday, May 28. The prospective bride is a student at Saratoga High School and her fiancé is employed in Benton, Ark., where the couple will make a home.

Engagement Announced

Miss Linda Verlene McAdams

The wedding of Miss Linda Verlene McAdams to Joe Allen Gazzolo Jr. will be an event of 7:30 o'clock in the evening, May 28, at the Red Springs Baptist Church, Texarkana. Mr. and Mrs. Ervin McAdams formerly of Hope announces their daughter's marriage plans. Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Allen Gazzolo. All are of Texarkana. The bride to be is a senior student at Texarkana Senior High School and her fiancé is a graduate of Texarkana College and Southern State College in Magnolia. He is employed in Shreveport where the couple will make a home. No written invitations to the wedding will be mailed but friends of the families will be welcomed.

Berlin Police Seek Hijackers

BERLIN (AP) — West Berlin police are looking for hijackers who drove a trailer truck 312 miles from West Germany, then left it parked with its $2,500 cargo almost intact.

The thieves paid $20 in road tolls to bring the truck through Communist East Germany and brought gas for the trip from the town of Dueren near the Belgian border.

All that was missing from the cargo of industrial products, rugs, paper and cloth was a small rug worth $28 and two rolls of cloth worth $675.

A patrol car spotted the truck on Sunday. The truck was stolen at Dueren on Saturday with all its documents in the glove compartment.

Transmission Money Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interior Department Tuesday asked a Senate Appropriations Committee for a supplemental appropriation of $520,000 for this year to complete a power line in southeast Missouri and north central Arkansas.

The money would be for the Jonesboro - Idalia transmission line.

The Senate committee was advised that money is not available from unobligated balances as was anticipated when the Southwestern Power Administration presented its report to the House Appropriations Committee earlier this year.

The project's total cost is an estimated $2.7 million.

Secretary's Complaint

Dear Helen: I know you're supposed to write it the way your boss dictates, but my boss is the wordiest man since Webster. He never uses one word where five will do, and big ones are his glory. I know he would get a lot more response from his letters and reports if he'd cut them down, but what can I do? — New Secretary of a Bureaucrat

Dear N.S. of B.: Keep typing. If he didn't like triple-talk he'd read Rudolf Fleesch and trim down. . . . Thought you MIGHT put Fleesch's books, "The Way to Write," and "How to Write, Speak and Think More Effectively" in a conspicuous place on your desk. And as a bookmark, try this:

"The Lord's Prayer. . . 56 words, Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. . . 266, Ten Commandments. . . 297 words, Declaration of Independence. . . 300 words, Government order setting the price of cabbage. . . 26,911 words. — H.

Dear Helen: Old complaint, but if they put "Danger" on cigarette packages, why not on liquor bottles, cars, etc. . . . — Man About Town

Dear Man: . . . "And marriage licenses" suggests my husband who always has the last word . . . just before he ducks. — H.

Dear Helen: How often has it been said: "We broke up because we had nothing in common and a marriage won't work on that basis?"

Other than our love, my husband and I have only two things in common: our religion. (It was different before I changed to his and our two children.

He is a Northerner and I'm from the South. That naturally means we dislike the same food. Have you ever had a dinner of ice cold watermelon, boiled peanuts, baked beans and goulash? Music? We're not even close here.

Jerry is quiet, a homebody, very self-controlled, likes a few favorite friends and always take the serious way to do things. Me: I'm a redhead, with an awful temper and my foot always in my mouth. I like to go, be with a crowd, have a world of friends and, in most cases, take the simple way out.

I suppose you're bored to pieces by now so I'll close by saying this:

My father told Jerry that before our first year was over he would box me up and mail me home. So with that thought, lots of sleepless nights due to bills, scads of tuna-fish sandwiches, and many, many of those "Do you remember the time when?" memories, we've had five wonderful years of marriage. Helen, I'm proud to say that on our fifth anniversary he made up his mind to keep me another year! — Happiness is Mrs. Gerald M.

Dear Mrs. Gerald M.: Happiness is also Mr. Gerald M. I'm sure he says, "Vive la difference." — H.

WANTED! MEN — WOMEN

From ages 18 and over. Prepare now for U.S. Civil Service job openings during the next 12 months. Government positions pay high starting salaries. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Many positions require little or no specialized education or experience. But to get one of these jobs you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass.

LINCOLN SERVICE, Dept. 22-4, Pekin, Illinois
I am very much interested. Please send me absolutely FREE (1) A list of U.S. Government positions and salaries; (2) Information on how to qualify for a U.S. Government Job.

Canadians Grab Brass Key Again

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
MONTREAL'S Proud Canadien have grabbed the brass ring again in the National Hockey League, leaving Bobby Hull with a fistful of records and Hull's Chicago Black Hawks with a handful of dust.
The Canadiens, who nailed their eighth NHL championship in the last 11 years by overpowering the Black Hawks 8-3, Saturday night, tuned up for their defense of the Stanley Cup with a 4-1 victory over New York in Sunday's regular season wind-up.
Chicago played the reluctant bridesmaid again — the Hawks never have won a season title — despite Hull's sweep of the league's all-time scoring records.
Hull, added to his scoring mark with goal No. 54 against the Canadiens Saturday, then set a record of 97 points with an assist in Sunday night's 4-2 loss to the Boston Bruins. Dickie Moore of Montreal set the old record of 96 points seven years ago.

The Bruins' victory shot them past New York into fifth place, marking the first time in six years they've climbed out of the NHL cellar.
In Sunday night's other season finale, third place Toronto and fourth place Detroit played to a 3-3 standoff.
The post season playoffs begin Thursday night, with Toronto at Montreal and Detroit at Chicago in the first games of best-of-seven semifinals.
The Canadiens, who last won the NHL title in 1963-64, were dethroned by Detroit last season. They rebounded to capture the Stanley Cup, however, and beat out Chicago by eight points in this year's race despite the loss of All-Star defenseman Jacques Laperriere, who missed the last month with a leg injury.

Stanley Playoffs Start April 7th

MONTREAL (AP) — The post-season Stanley Cup playoffs will start April 7, the National Hockey League announced Thursday.
The competition will match the first-place team against the third-place team, and the runner-up against the fourth-place club.
The Montreal Canadiens currently head the standings followed by Chicago, Toronto and Detroit in that order.
The schedule, for the first time in the circuit's history, lists two afternoon playoff dates, Sunday, April 10, and Sunday, April 17, both in Chicago with Detroit furnishing the opposition.
The National Broadcasting Co., recently announced plans to televise a minimum of three afternoon Cup games.

Picks Sanders as Winner of Masters

By REESE HART
Associated Press Writer
GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Confidence that is growing with his string of successes, plus an excellent putter, have made Doug Sanders the choice of at least one highly qualified expert to win the Masters Golf Tournament.
"He is going good and has confidence," said Al Besselnk and named Sanders as the man most likely to succeed in the Masters, opening Thursday in Augusta, Ga.
Sanders racked up his second straight tournament victory and third of the season Sunday when he dropped in a five-foot putt and beat Tom Weiskopf on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff for the title in the Greater Greensboro Open.
Sanders, 32, from Ojai, Calif., said it would take confidence, stamina and a strong game to win the Masters.
"Needless to say, I have the confidence," he added after picking up his $20,000 check. The triumph followed his victory at Jacksonville, Fla. Earlier this season he won the Bob Hope tourney.
Arnold Palmer's concern was with his game. Arnie closed with a 69, but finished well back at 279.
"I think my game could be good, but it's not right now," Palmer said. "I'm not confident enough with the putter and my wedge play is so bad I don't like to take it out of my bag. I'm going to do a lot of work in the next three days."

Sanders and Weiskopf, 23, of Bedford, Ohio, shot one-under par 70s to finish in a tie with a 72-hole total of 276, eight under par.
Each parred the 15th, where the playoff began. On the par three 225-yard 16th, Weiskopf missed the green, chipped up short and missed his shot, blasted out and sank it for a par.
Weiskopf picked up $12,000, his biggest check since turning pro in 1964. The total purse was $100,000.
Miller Barber and Dave Ragan tied for third with 277 and won $6,250 each. Barber finished with a six-under par 65, the day's lowest round. He had seven birdies and one bogey. Ragan closed with a 70.
PGA champion Dave Marr, who had a 68, was fourth with 278 and won $4,300.
R. H. Sikes, third round leader, slumped to a 74 and tied Arnold Palmer and Al Geiberger at 279. Defending champion Sam Snead had a 72-hole total of 285. Snead has won the tournament eight times.

Doesn't Figure Trade to Help

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — The Boston Red Sox have made another one of those trades that doesn't figure to help the team, swapping one utility man for another.
The Red Sox traded last year's All-Star second baseman, Felix Mantilla, to the Houston Astros Sunday for Eddie Kasko.
Boston also optioned four players to Toronto, slashing their roster to 31, just three men above the player limit. Those sent to Toronto were pitchers Bill Rohr and Jerry Herron, catcher Owen Johnson and infielder Mike Andrews.

Better Sea Winner of Ark. Derby

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Scottsdale Farm's Better Sea easily won the 30th running of the $50,000-added Arkansas Derby Saturday as Oaklawn Park brought its 43-day race meeting to a close.
John Sellers, who came from Florida's Gulfstream to ride Better Sea, guided the big gelding across the finish line four lengths ahead of Wilhoft Brothers' Eladio.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Faulkenstein's Taipan was third.
Taipan was five lengths behind Eladio and only a nose the best of Shecky Chi, who finished fourth in the field of 12 three-year-olds.
Leading all the way, Better Sea ran the mile and a furlong in 1:49 1-5 to return $6.20, $4.60 and $3.40. Eladio paid $21.20 and $11, and Taipan $4.40. Better Sea was a co-favorite with Casing Tools, who finished eighth.
The race grossed $59,400. The winner's share was $35,640.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Scottsdale Farm's Better Sea led from start to finish Saturday and won the 30th running of the $50,000 Arkansas Derby.
Better Sea, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Scott, scored by four lengths over Wilhoft Brothers' Eladio as the 43-day race meeting at Oaklawn Park ended.
"He ran a beautiful race," said Jockey Johnny Sellers, who came here from Gulfstream Park in Florida to ride Better Sea. "I had no problems, no worries at any time."
The only thing that concerned me was that he tends to relax a little when he gets on top," Sellers said. "Blaine (trainer Blaine Heap) warned me about that. He did relax a little at the half pole but I flicked him once down in the shoulder and he went on."
Better Sea covered the mile and a furlong in 1:49 1-5 and returned $6.20, $4.60 and $3.40. Eladio paid $21.20 and $11 while Mr. and Mrs. Paul Faulk-

Celtics May Have That Drive Back

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Boston Celtics, striving to regain lost prestige, and the Los Angeles Lakers, seeking a never attained honor, hold the upper hand in the drive for final berths in the National Basketball Association playoffs.
Boston, dethroned by the Philadelphia 76ers as Eastern Division regular season king for the first time in 10 years, opened the best-of-seven Eastern final series with a 115-96 trouncing of the 76ers at Philadelphia Monday.
The Lakers, never a playoff champion since moving from Minneapolis, put themselves in a commanding 2-0 lead in the Western final by defeating the St. Louis Hawks 125-116.
Boston, who had to come from behind to win a best-of-five semifinal with Cincinnati, has things much its own way against the 76ers who had signs of stalling. I was a Philadelphia first game since the regular season ended.
The Celtics were led by an excellent defense and the shooting of Sam Jones, who scored 29 points, and John Havlicek, who got 22. Wilt Chamberlain led the 76ers with 25 points and 32 rebounds.
Elgin Baylor set a career playoff field goal record of 819 by pumping in 17 for the Lakers as he led the way with 42 points. The old mark of 818 was set by Tommy Heinsohn of Boston. Zelmo Beaty scored 36 points for the Hawks.

Porks Are Starting Spring Practice

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Competition for 11 vacancies left by graduated starters began here today as the Arkansas Razorbacks, the nation's third-ranked team last year, began spring football practice.
The Porks will be trying to pick up the pieces from a 14-7 defeat at the hands of Louisiana State in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1 and to post their third straight unbeaten regular season.
Coach Frank Broyles scheduled four workouts this week and four drills per week when practice resumes April 19 following the Easter holidays.

New Management Project Shows How

Work smarter... not harder, advises Mary Ann Dean, home economist. "Think, plan ahead, compare, evaluate your time, talents and cash before you take on any major projects around the house."

Miss Dean's comments are directed to 4-H Club members about to embark on the new 4-H Home Management program announced by the National 4-H Service Committee in cooperation with the Extension Service. The practical home-based program was designed to fill a need of older club members, and was a couple of years in the planning stage. Miss Dean, a staff member of the 4-H Service Committee, also disclosed that a national sponsor has been secured to provide awards and other assistance to the program. Tupperware Home Parties of Orlando, Fla. is the new sponsor.

Award winners will consist of eight $500 scholarships (national winners); one expense-paid trip per state to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago; and four gold-filled medals of honor per county. Winners will be announced each fall by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Miss Dean urges girls, and boys, to take up home management now. The idea behind this modern program for the older teenager is to learn to make the best possible use of young resources, energy, knowledge and ability.

When about half of today's homemakers are young (under 28), it is imperative that home-makers and parents of tomorrow be ready to spend wisely, she adds.

Through the 4-H Home Management program, high school-age students will better understand the many aspects of shopping, banking, financing and decision-making. This knowledge can be put to good use in college, on a job or in the home, Miss Dean remarked.

Information on how to take part in the 1968 program can be obtained from the county extension 4-H office.

There's a Peeve on All the Time

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — There is a very peevish period everywhere, although, come to think of it, there was hardly a period that wasn't.

President Johnson has peevish consumers; are peevish, labor has peevish Democrats and Republicans; are peevish at each other, members of NATO are peevish; some Vietnamese are peevish.

The Wall Street Journal after a survey found consumers across the nation peevish at rising prices.

This couldn't help but peeve Johnson who wants prices held steady. It's obvious some elements of business are ignoring him.

Labor is peevish at Johnson for insisting wage increases should not go up more than 3.2 per cent, although business profits are soaring.

With prices rising, living costs are going up, and Johnson, fearing inflation, is peevish at the thought of it.

A 4-H girl explains to her mother how much she expects to save in hard-earned cash by signing up for the new 4-H Home Management program. Linda Lopez, 17, a 9-year 4-H'er, is particularly interested in the program because she will enter college next fall with plans to major in home economics. Her mother, Mrs. Jesse Lopez, is an eager listener because she is a volunteer 4-H Club leader.

Latest to Dip in Pentagon Gobblegook

WASHINGTON (AP) — The latest federal official to gingerly dip his toe into the quicksand of government gobblegook issued a ringing call Thursday for better use of "verbal symbols" — words, that is.

In announcing a program to improve the writing in government reports, Commissioner Arthur M. Ross of the Bureau of Labor Statistics appeared to have succumbed to a touch of "federlese" in his five months in office.

It was almost inevitable. Like living in a measles ward, gobblegook can be catching.

More "cogent" (convincing) analysis, demanded Ross, the eloquent and usually plain-spoken former University of California professor.

No more "timid locutions and turgid rhetoric" (timid phrases and purple prose), Ross plaintively urged.

Eight writers for the bureau will get four to six weeks of intensive teaching to help them better translate difficult economic subjects into simpler language, Ross said.

"If the experiment is successful, other groups of employees will have the same opportunity," he added.

Lawrence Klein, director of the bureau's publications, will supervise the program. Katherine Arnow of the National Science Foundation and former editor Mary Bedell will help in the teaching — whoops, "tutelage," as Ross put it.

The writing project may help clarify such examples as this one, picked at random from one edition of the bureau's Labor Review: "Because the measure of poverty for nonfarm unrelated individuals is almost the same under the economy level definition as under the earlier one — and 1-person households seldom live on a farm — characteristics of the 4.9 million unrelated persons now labeled as poor are almost the same as those thus identified earlier."

McNamara in Defense of His Policy

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara contends his military buildup policy "has increased our military strength," although it involves a temporary loss of combat readiness in some Army divisions converted to training.

"Both for today and for the future the program has expanded substantially the total number of trained personnel in the active and Reserve forces," McNamara said Thursday.

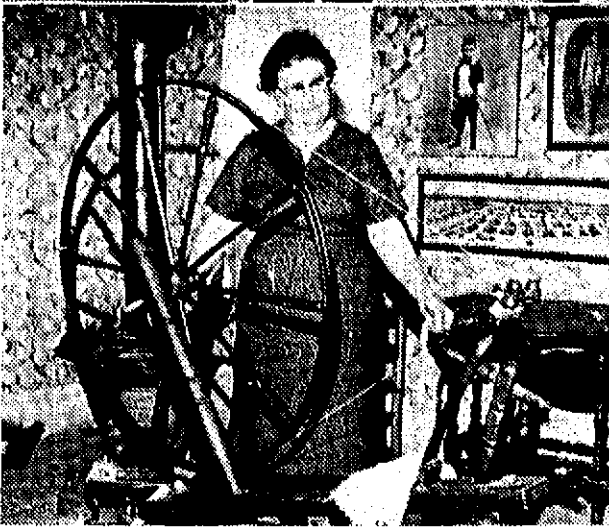

"It has increased our military strength and it has enhanced our ability to effectively fulfill our political commitments," he said.

Thus did McNamara defend "the wisdom of my recommendations and the President's decision of last year" on the way the buildup should be conducted.

The decision, the defense chief said, was "to meet the current troop deployments to South Viet Nam by an expansion of the active Army, plus an increase in the readiness of the Reserve forces, rather than by the call to active duty of those Reserve forces."

McNamara took his stand in a letter to Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Senate Preparedness Subcommittee, one of his chief critics.

Stennis' aides said the senator had received McNamara's letter but that the Mississippian would have no immediate comment.

FOLK FESTIVAL TIME IN ARKANSAS

Some 20,000 people from all over the Nation will converge on Mountain View, Arkansas April 15-16-17 to hear fiddlin', banjer-pickin', ballad singin', tale-tellin', and other folk charms, done in the old traditional manner. This is the Arkansas Folk Festival produced by famed Jimmie Driftwood (above right) and some 100 performers of the "Land Of The Rackensack". There will be two shows nightly, with music on the Court Square Saturday, and a big religious singing Sunday afternoon.

The widely known Ozarks Foothills Handicraft Guild will be holding its annual fair with displays of native crafts such as doll making, whittling, pottery, etc.

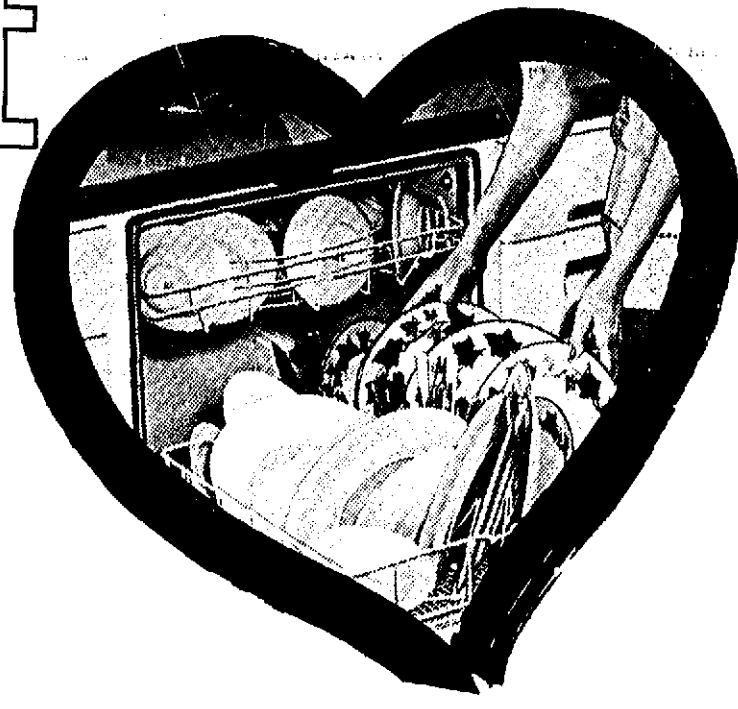

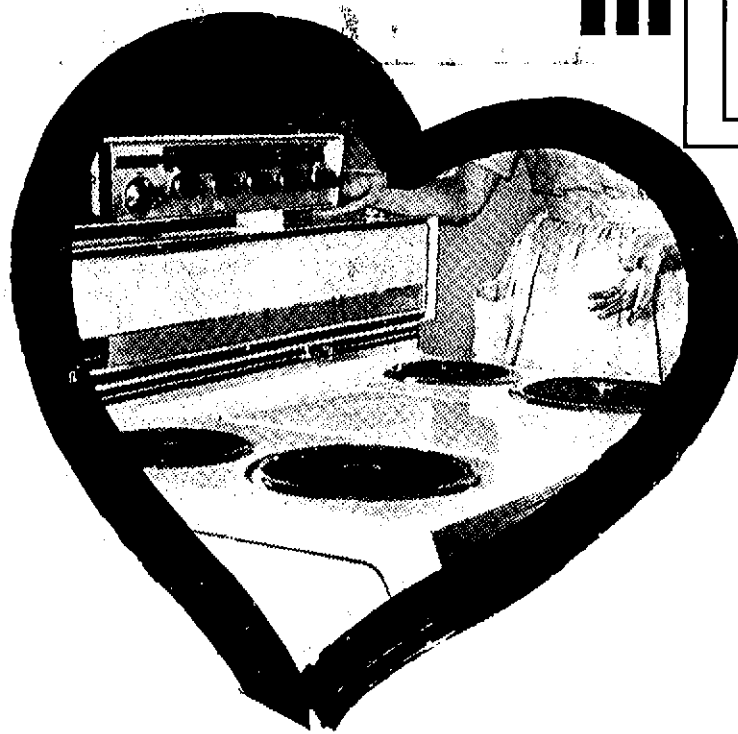

While there, visitors can see a display of Indian artifacts, attend exciting rodeos, view parades and enjoy the colorful Dogwood and Wild Plum.

Eleven miles away, The Timbo Valley Old Timey Crafts folks (left) will be making soap, splitting rails, grinding corn, spinning, weaving, making pottery and other crafts of past generations.

McNamara wrote Stennis: "I want to emphasize again that the use of these divisions for training purposes should not mislead us or others into concluding that we are overextended militarily, or that our overall combat readiness has decreased."

He didn't specify the "others," but it was apparent he meant the Red Chinese, the North Vietnamese and the Soviet Union.

THE WELL CHILD
Improved Treatment Curbs Deaths of Cystic Fibrosis
BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
- Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Cystic fibrosis is one of the so-called inborn errors of metabolism. In the past it killed more children under 15 years of age than rheumatic fever, diabetes and poliomyelitis combined. This grim picture is improving, thanks to earlier diagnosis and better treatment.
Both men and women may be carriers of the gene that causes this disease without having it themselves. Since it is a recessive gene both parents must carry it and even then the probability that any child they produce will have the disease is only 1 in 4.

The victim of cystic fibrosis lacks certain enzymes or hormones necessary for normal function of sweat, mucous and digestive glands. Because the mucus in the lungs of a child with this disease is thicker than normal, the pulmonary secretions cannot drain properly and chronic lung disease is the rule.

Because the pancreas fails to put out its digestive enzyme, fats are poorly digested. Malnutrition and diarrhea are the result. Puberty is often delayed. The amount of salt in the sweat is greatly increased and this has been used as the easiest means of making the diagnosis.

There is no cure for cystic fibrosis but by starting appropriate treatment in infancy many children have been enabled to mature and have a fairly normal life. The most important part of the treatment is the prevention of lung infections. This is accomplished by keeping the lungs free of thick, obstructing mucus by having the victim inhale a mist containing N-acetylcysteine. Antibiotics are also helpful.

In severe cases this substance can be used to wash out the lungs but this is a heroic measure that can usually be avoided by starting treatment before the disease has progressed so far as to make this necessary.

Pancreatic enzymes are now available to help prevent the marked loss of weight due to inability to digest fats. Because infants with cystic fibrosis have difficulty absorbing tocopherol or vitamin E they must be given this vitamin in large amounts.

Recent studies have also indicated beneficial results from a combination of sex hormones, using great care to adjust the dosage to individual needs. The National Cystic Fibrosis Foundation (521 Fifth Ave., New York, N.Y. 10017) has helpful literature on this subject for any who are interested.

Reds Meet With Air of Uncertainty

An AP News Analysis By WILLIAM L. Ryan AP Special Correspondent
The Soviet Communist party's 23rd congress opened today in what appears to be an atmosphere of nervous uncertainty.
There has been a suggestion in the advance billing for this well-rehearsed and carefully staged Congress that the leaders have been worried about the extent to which the party may have been losing its grip at home and abroad.
At home, public impatience with promises which have yet to bear abundant fruit seems matched by public apathy toward doctrinaire exhortations on such themes as sacrifice by the present generation in the name of "building communism" for a future one. Anathema can be just a step away from restless-ness.

Abroad, the Kremlin no longer can dictate to foreign parties in the manner of Stalin's regime. The split with Red China has pried away some of the Soviet grip. As for its relations with Peking, the Soviet party at the moment seems to be at the point of waiting for the final divorce decree.

Ten years after the dramatic 20th congress at which Nikita Khrushchev flayed the wrath of Stalin, the party bureaucracy acts as if it were on the defensive. An Old Guard struggling to retain its position and privileges against insistent pressure from below for change.

The Soviet party is not what it used to be. It has become big and unwieldy. It is no longer a particular distinction to be a member. There are 12 million of them now - one in every score or so persons in the U.S.S.R. The party is no longer the indispensable stepping stone to a successful career, although it still helps.

Thus, some in the bureaucracy may hark back wistfully to the days of Stalin, when the party's word was irrefutable law. Evidence of this is in frequent references to Stalin in pre-congress material disseminated by the Soviet party press.
Pravda, for example, now finds that the term "period of the personality cult" was actually "an erroneous and un-Marxist phrase," and that the criticism of that era has gone much too far.

"Bid Better, Play Better" is the title of a new book by Dorothy Hayden of New York. Dorothy's tournament record of the last few years has never been equaled by any woman player. Her book which covers both bidding and play is designed to impress points of bidding and play on the reader.

In discussing signaling, Dorothy points out that the most important signal and the first signal a player should learn is the come-on signal. Dorothy says, "Whenever partner leads to a trick, and you have an opportunity to signal, you should play a high card if you want the suit continued and a low card if you don't want the suit continued."

West opens the king of hearts against South's three no-trump contract. East wants the suit continued but can't spare the queen so he plays the eight. This should encourage West to continue with the ace and five, whereupon declarer will be faced with the impossible problem of making three no-trump after the opponents have cashed the first five tricks.

A further quotation from Dorothy's book on this same hand is, "East has four gradations of signal available since he can play the eight, six, four or two. Here are the approximate meanings of each."

"The two: 'Stop leading hearts...'

"The four: 'I can tolerate a heart continuation...'

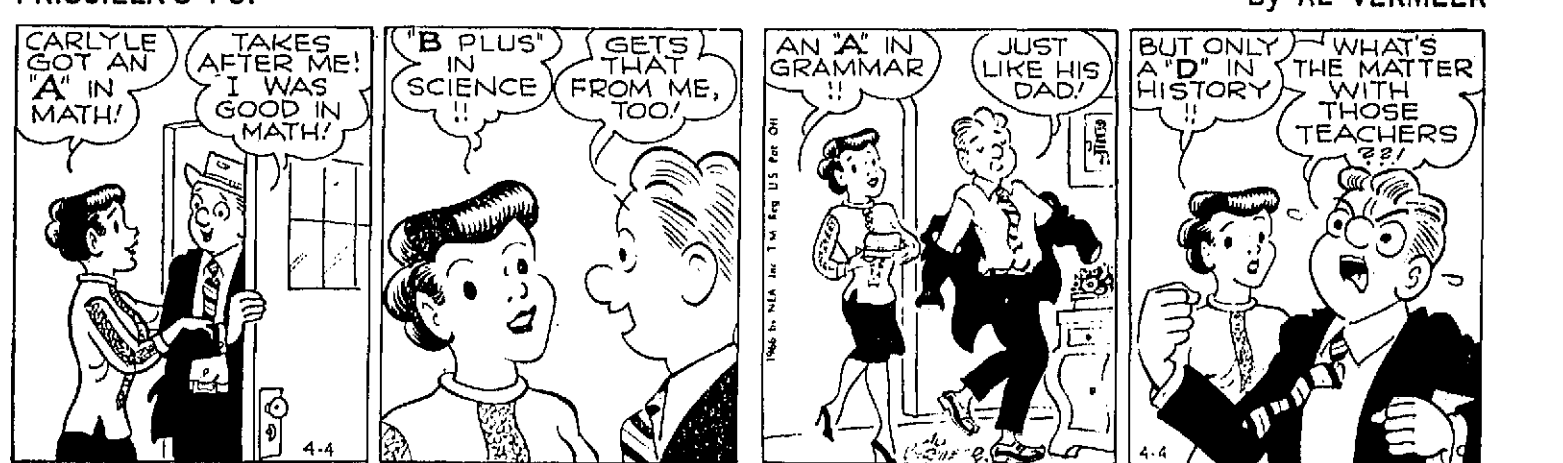

"The six: 'Please continue hearts...'

"The eight: 'FOR THE LOVE OF MIKE LEAD ANOTHER HEART!'"

Trains Moving as Firemen End 4-Day Walkout

By NEIL GILBRIDE
WASHINGTON (AP) — Train movements rapidly picked up spread over eight major railroads from coast to coast today after firemen ended a paralyzing four-day strike.

Under stiff pressure from P resident Johnson and heavy fines imposed by a federal judge, the union held out to the last minute to win pledges of no reprisals against strikers or members of other unions who refused to cross picket lines.

"We have received assurances that the eight struck railroads will not make any reprisals against any employees," said President H. E. Gilbert of the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers in calling off the 38-state strike just before midnight Sunday.

The first commuter train rolled out of the Illinois Central station in Chicago 25 minutes later and operations resumed on the seven other railroads from Maine to Florida to California.

But Gilbert goes back before U.S. Dist. Judge Alexander Holtzoff today, facing possible punishment for the 12-hour delay from Holtzoff's Sunday noon deadline for ending the strike.

Holtzoff had imposed fines of $25,000 a day against the union and $2,500 a day against Gilbert, effective at noon.

When pickets remained hours after Gilbert's noon statement that he would end the strike if no reprisals were promised, railroad attorneys went to Holtzoff's home and the judge ordered the union to show cause why the fines should not be raised to $500,000 and $10,000 a day.

The end of the strike came 12 hours after Johnson told Gilbert "the nation's interest and respect for our courts require your immediate compliance to-day with the district court order."

But the union credited Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz with helping wrap up no reprisals pledges from the final two railroads — the Central of Georgia and the Seaboard Air Line — finally ending the walkout. The firemen had refused to go back on any railroad until all eight made such pledges.

The other struck lines — in addition to the Illinois Central — were the Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Grand Trunk Western, Boston & Maine and the Pennsylvania Railroad west of Harrisburg, Pa.

Holtzoff also scheduled court hearings today on the basic fight — the elimination of about 18,000 firemen's jobs the past two years under a federal arbitration award that expired at 12:01 a.m. last Thursday when the strike began.

Spring Football Death Reported
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Jim Wood, a 15-year-old football player at Berry High School died Sunday night, three days after he collapsed on the practice field.

It was the second death resulting from spring football practice in the Birmingham area. Clifton (Randy) Baker, 15, died of a broken neck suffered at Banks High Feb. 24.

Doctors said Weed apparently suffered a mild concussion during practice last Monday, but showed no symptoms of serious injury and the trouble probably could not have been spotted at the time.

Weed complained of a headache Thursday and collapsed on the sidelines. He was rushed to University Hospital for an emergency operation to remove a blood clot from his brain.

Rail Strike Proved Costly to Everyone

CHICAGO (AP) — The four-day strike against eight major railroads put more than 200,000 persons out of work or on part-time duty in 38 states, the carriers report they lost an estimated $5 million daily and the striking firemen lost $320,000 a day in wages.

The strike by about 8,000 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers began Thursday, delaying mail and stalling food and agricultural shipments in rail yards and sidings. It affected industry, transportation to and from work and shipment of freight before being called off Sunday night.

The auto industry was the hardest hit, but the strike ended before the worst came.

The Union Pacific Railroad, one of the struck carriers, estimated that 29,000 employees over its system were idled with loss of wages running at $744,000 a day and loss of $1.5 million a day in revenue.

In Chicago, the Illinois Central said it would have commuter trains running for its 32,500 passengers on schedule today and that its operations should be in full swing by noon.

The IC had its first commuter train moving less than two hours after the agreement was signed. The IC's 6,500 miles of track runs through more than 1,500 communities in 14 states.

The Pennsylvania Railroad said pickets were withdrawn from the Penn Station in Pittsburgh late Sunday night and that freight schedules would be returned to normal by tonight. A spokesman said the first passenger train would move out by afternoon.

Bobbie Frey Is Bowling Winner

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Waiting until the final day to make her bid, Bobbie Frey of Torrance, Calif., surged past LaVerne Carter of St. Louis and won the 32-game Oklahoma City Women's Professional Bowling Tournament Sunday.

Mrs. Frey averaged 208 pins per game over the last day's play to win by 123 pins and take the trophy and $1,750 first prize money for her 6,444 pin total. Wilma Anderson of Roseda, Calif., finished in second place with a 6,321 pin total for the four-day tourney. She was followed by Toni Calvery of Oklahoma City with 6,311.

Other top finishers included Ann Slattery, 6,295; Ethel Glasco, 6,291; Mrs. Carter, 6,244; Betty Mivelaz, 6,209, and Betty Maw, 6,184.

Moon Orbit Reported by the Russians

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government told the Communist party congress today that Luna 10 has gone into orbit around the moon, marking a major step toward a manned landing.

The announced Soviet feat chalks up a key victory over the United States, which still has to match the soft moon landing achieved by the Soviet's Luna 9 on Feb. 3. The American lunar program is not scheduled to begin launching rockets to orbit the moon until late this year.

The announcement that Luna 10 had become the first artificial moon satellite was read before delegates to the 23rd party congress gathered in the Kremlin.

The Russians dramatized the feat by playing a recording of the Internationale, the Communist anthem, which Luna 10 had broadcast. Delegates broke into enthusiastic applause as they heard the strains of the anthem.

The broadcast of the anthem also was picked up Sunday by West Germany's Bochum Observatory.

Judicial Act Petitions Circulating

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Petitions for an initiated act to make wide-sweeping changes in the state judicial system will be circulated by the Arkansas Judiciary Commission, a spokesman says.

W. S. Mitchell told a group of women lawyers here Saturday the commission hopes to file the petitions with the secretary of state by July 1.

The act, to be placed on the November general election ballot, would remove judgeships from the partisan political arena, he said.

Mitchell listed these general recommendations, which he said were not yet in final form: —Judicial functions would be removed from justices of the peace and county judges.

County judges would continue as administrative officers while justices would continue quasi-legislative and appropriate functions in quorum courts.

Mayors' courts and courts of common pleas would be eliminated. Each first class city would have a countywide municipal court while the legislature would be authorized to set un similar municipal courts for other cities. The courts would have authority over traffic, civil and criminal cases.

Family courts would be created as divisions of probate courts, handling all matters related to families, Mitchell said.

The amendment would provide that state Supreme Court justices, circuit and chancery judges be selected from recommendations by nominating commissions, rather than be elected. They would run against their own records, if they desired successive terms.

If such an amendment were to pass, a vacancy occurred in one of the judicial offices.

Rock Island Has New Headquarters

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — Rock Island Railroad has established headquarters here for its operation in 14 states.

The headquarters will be in command of 10,873 of the company's 14,000 employees. About 1,200 workers will be here.

The company closed district headquarters at Des Moines, Iowa, and El Reno, Okla., last Friday, moving executive staffs here.

Other employees are being transferred from Chicago and Rock Island, Ill.

O Civilization! The Surprised One Horse Opera

Civilization — that restraining force which compels a man to overhaul his lawnmower before he outfits the boat for the new season.

I thought I had a surprise for Daily Bread's public — but now it appears I am the surprised one.

I have in "the back 40" behind the house, as you've heard, a pair of domestic white geese and a pair of 4-year-old mated Canadian Honkers. Somebody in the crowd built a nest next to the quail-house. Obviously they were goose eggs. When I discovered it there were seven, then nine — finally 15 — and whoever was managing the nest began covering it up with grass and brush in her absence.

But that was the trouble. I never could catch the lady at home. I didn't know whether they were domestic geese eggs or Canadian.

Then one afternoon a Little Rock visitor wanted to see the livestock, and I was pleasantly surprised: There on the nest was Mrs. Honker, with Mr. Honker standing guard. Just what I hoped for. I had a surprise for the public.

But two days later I checked the nest and found Mrs. White Goose on it. Now there's a great big doubt, and I am the surprised one.

And to add to the confusion I must report that about midnight last night I resolved to clear up the mystery and took my coon-skin light out to the back 40 to see who was on the nest for the overnight shift. But no one. Absolutely no one. The nest was covered up and all four geese were in the lagoon for a swim.

I don't know nuthin' — but what I suspect is, I have some delinquent parents on my hands. Still, animal life manages very well without help from Man, so I'll wait and see.

Everyone loves horse opera in the movies, and hundreds of southwest Arkansians missed a good live show at Fair Park Coliseum Sunday afternoon when the South Central Arkansas Horse Show Association opened its Spring tour. The local crowd was sparse. But the show was short on advance publicity — which we'll remedy another time.

As more people will have heard about it the show ought to draw better on its second appearance, which will be at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, April 17, at the Prescott Arena — and we certainly recommend seeing it.

The program has 11 events, winding up with some exciting races against the clock. Here yesterday there were four spills, but no one was hurt. And the horses behaved beautifully — all except one cayuse who had had too many oats and bucked, throwing his rider.

Christians Plan for Holy Week

By BENNET M. BOLTON
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Christians began their annual observance of Holy Week Sunday as Jews by coincidence were preparing for their annual celebration of Passover, commencing tonight.

Pope Paul VI blessed palm branches in the Sistine Chapel and said Mass Sunday before 10,000 persons in St. Peter's Basilica. The Palm Sunday rites marked the triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem five days before his Crucifixion.

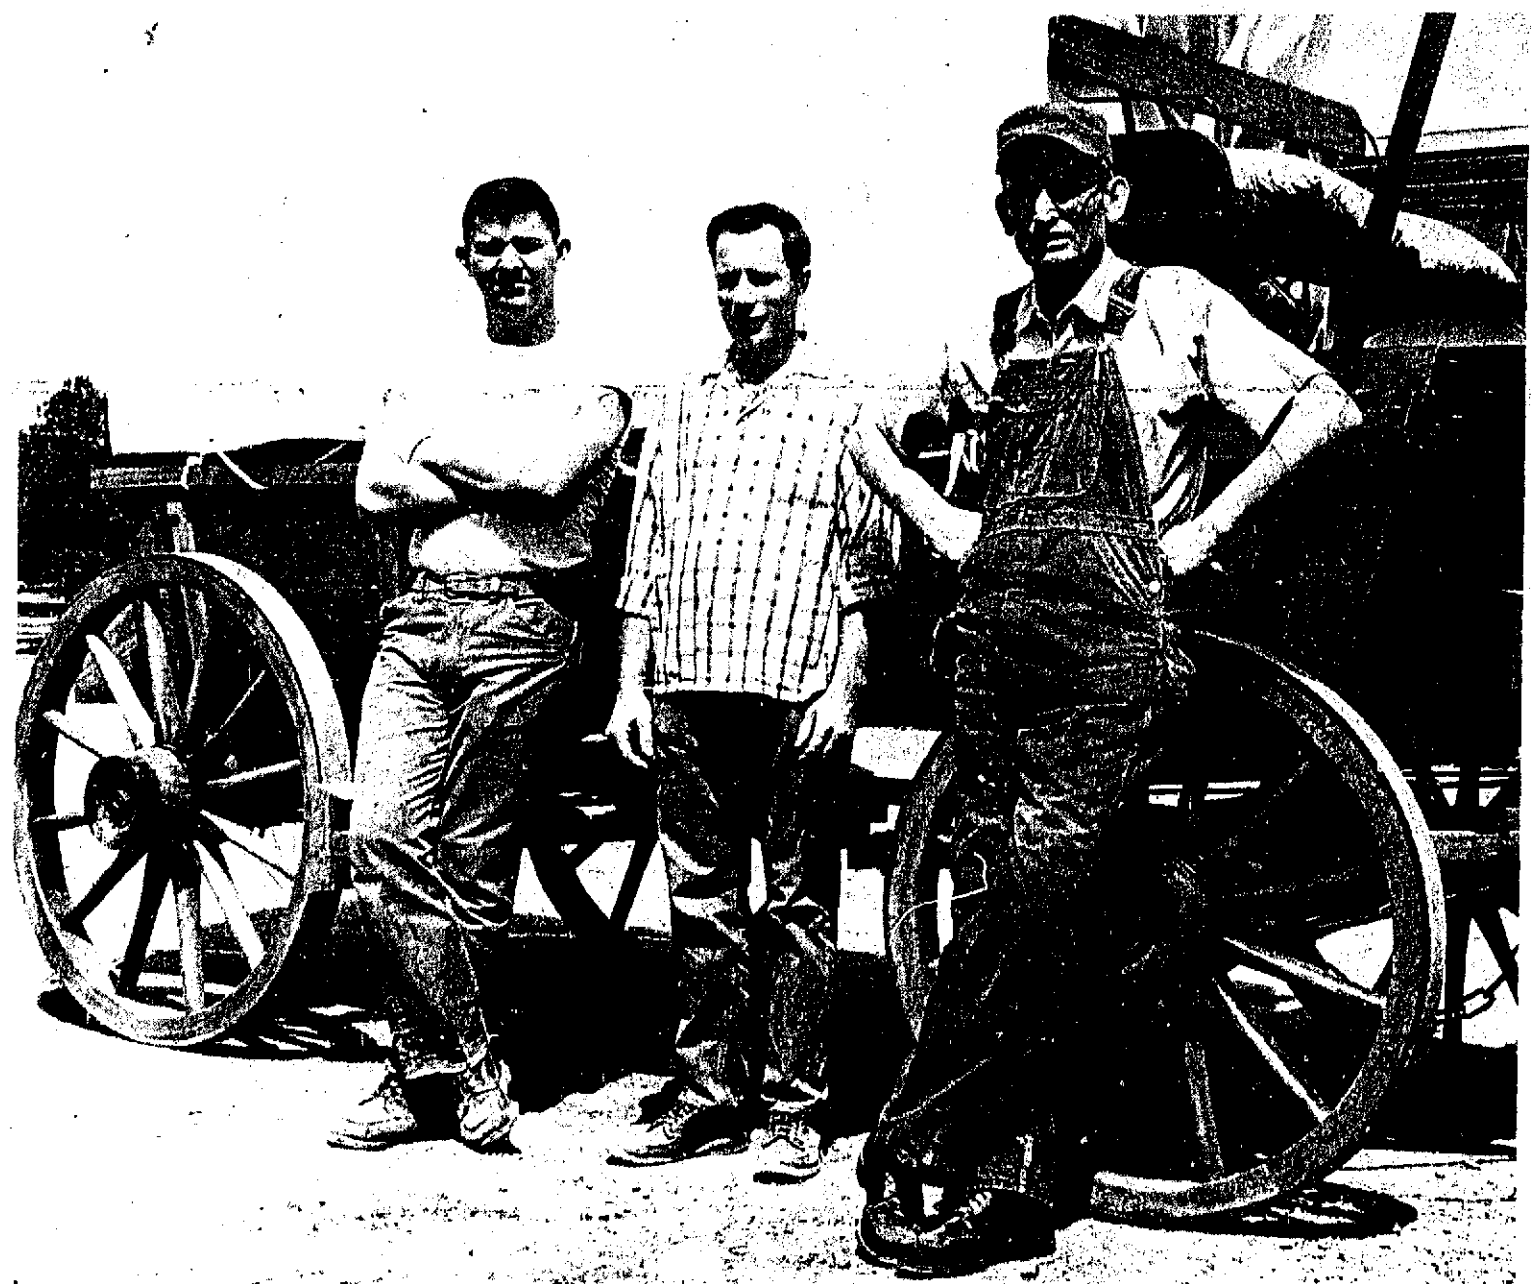

The Pope distributed the palm to 21 cardinals, then put on a red cape and a bishop's mitre for the procession through the Basilica to the main altar for Mass.

"Today, as before," the pontiff said in a sermon, "the people are invited to choose between those who love Christ as the son of God and those who do not."

Addressing thousands of youth in the audience, he added: "You, what do you say? Your presence here is an answer. You have chosen Christ."

Emphasizing the importance of young persons in modern times, the Pope warned: "There is a danger that they will become superficial, that they will become skeptics, cynics who have no respect for any values and no through life like loafers and narchists."

Auto Racing Film Shown to Rotarians

An exciting view of the "Southern 500" auto race at Darlington, S. C., was shown to the Hope Rotary Club by Newt Pentecost with the assistance of Bob Wilhite at the regular club meeting last Friday at the Town and Country. Because the Dodge Automobile Co. distributed the film it wasn't surprising which car was victorious, but the race was nevertheless exciting.

Jim Pruden was officially welcomed into the club by Rotarian L. T. Lawrence and was presented a Rotary pin. Frank Key of Lewisville and John Hill of Kilgore, Tex., were visiting Rotarians.

A club guest, Clifford Franks, solicited aid from the Rotarians counseling Boy Scouts in various fields for merit badges, and he received several volunteers. Other guests were Claud Nunn, Dr. Lloyd Guerin, and J. E. Pruden, Sidney, O.

Tornadoes in Florida Leave 7 Persons Dead

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Tornadoes slashed through at least eight Florida cities today, killing seven persons, injuring dozens more and causing massive damage.

Two stricken counties were declared disaster areas by Gov. Haydon Burns and the National Guard was sent in to help search for survivors in dozens of smashed and twisted buildings.

The seven deaths were reported in Tampa, the state's second largest city with a population of 274,000, and officials indicated there might be more.

At least 100 persons were injured in a widespread area. About 30 children were hospitalized at Lakeland, some 50 miles east of Tampa, after a twister ripped the roof from a junior high school shortly after the start of classes.

wagon at Arkla Village. Left to right are K. W. Williams, J. L. Spencer and M. J. Jones. It is expected the journey will take until about April 23 to complete.

THE ARKLA PLANT BUILT THE WAGON ACCORDING to specifications and the owners decided to take this unique method for delivery.

Senior Class Play Slated for April 22

The Senior class of Hope High School will present its class play on April 22.

The play by Christopher Sergel is in three acts. It is all about the troubles that come down on a high school senior when he falls for the daughter of the school principal.

Those who have parts are: Amelia Gaines, Brenda Bain, Carol Cranford, Gayle Williams, Frances Middlebrooks, Peggy McCorkle, Juliana Fenwick, Diane Marcum, Pat Bright, Tony Smith, Leland Lavender, Monroe Pardue, Bill Coffee, Jim Watson, and Charles Batson. Peggy Thomas will be prompter.

Negroes Are Camping Near White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Homeless and jobless Mississippi Negroes, camped overnight in a park across the street from the White House, continued to hope today for response to their plea for $1.3 million in anti-poverty funds.

"We have received no official communication from the White House or the Office of Economic Opportunity," said Frank Smith, the group's leader.

Post Office Dedication Easter Sunday

Postmaster Alfred D. Brannan proudly announces the dedication of the new Hope Federal Building.

Federal Judge Oren Harris will officially dedicate the beautiful new structure at 3 p.m., Sunday, April 10th.

Congressman James W. Trimble will also speak after being introduced by his very good friend and former colleague, Judge Harris.

Honorable W. M. McMillan, popular Assistant Postmaster General and longtime career postal employee, will come in from Washington, D. C. to represent the Post Office Department.

Randolph M. Jackson, Regional Director of Business Affairs of Dallas-Texas, and Lester G. Hubbard, Area Manager of Little Rock, of the General Services Administration, will appear on the program.

Postmaster Brannan reports that the General Services Administration constructed the new Federal Building at a cost of $323,000.00. In addition to the Post Office it will house the Soil Conservation Service, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, Farmers Home Administration, Social Security Administration, Wage Hour and Public Contracts Division, Selective Service and Internal Revenue Service.

The dedication program will start at 3 p.m. and the general public is cordially invited to attend.

Texarkana Shooting Is Fatal to One

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—One man was killed and four injured Saturday night during a shooting following an argument, Sheriff Richard Birtcher said.

Birtcher identified the victim as Ben Burton, 60, and said he was holding Bennie Mitchell, 62, in connection with Burton's death.

All persons involved were Texarkanans.

Birtcher said Burton and Weldon Watkins, 27, were in a car when Mitchell and Burton began arguing.

Watkins was shot as he was getting out of the car and two bystanders, T. J. Beasley, 45, and Ozzie Lea Ross, 22, were also shot, Birtcher said.

Burglary Report Didn't Materialize

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Police, remembering when the M. M. Cohn store here was relieved of $25,000 in cash and merchandise by burglars in 1962, quickly surrounded the firm's building Sunday when tipped that another burglary was going on.

About 40 policemen ringed the building and searched it, using two large dogs, but found nobody. They drew 100 to 200 spectators.

"We had reason to believe someone was in the building," said Police Chief R. E. Brians. He declined to speculate whether the tip was false or a burglar eluded the officers.

Johnson Quits Bench, Files for Governor

By JOHN R. STARR
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Justice Jim Johnson, declaring that he had "sat on the acorn long enough," stepped off the Arkansas Supreme Court today and immediately filed as a Democratic candidate for governor.

Johnson closed a seven-year career on the court by reading four opinions, stowed his black robe in a locker, and marched with a corps of newsmen to the secretary of state's office.

Asked how long he had been wanting to be governor, Johnson said:

"THERE ARE TWO ways to get to the top of an oak tree, climb it, or sit on an acorn. I sat on the acorn long enough."

Johnson ran unsuccessfully against Gov. Orval Faubus in 1956. He said he does not know whether Faubus will be an opponent this year.

Johnson is leaving a $25,000-a-year job to make the race for governor. He seemed to have no regrets about his decision.

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Jim Johnson stepped down from the Arkansas Supreme Court today and filed as a Democratic candidate for governor.

Johnson, who lost to Gov. Orval Faubus in the 1956 Democratic primary, retired as an associate justice today, just as he said he would two weeks ago.

But he had not revealed his political plans until he went to the office of Secretary of State Kelly Bryant and filed for the governor's race.

Johnson had acknowledged that he was considering a race for governor, but he declined to state definitely that he would run until today.

Rebellion Hits Saigon, More Riots Begin

By THOMAS A. REEDY
SAIGON (AP)—Rioting broke out in Saigon tonight as Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military regime wrestled with a rising rebellion on its doorstep and in the northern city of Dan Nang. The U.S. Military Command declared the capital's streets, bars and public places off limits to off-duty American personnel.

Government police with tear gas and clubs broke up about 500 teen-age demonstrators at the old National Assembly building in the Tu Do but the youths then surged toward the Saigon River in the direction of the U.S. embassy.

Another 1,000 demonstrators struck out from the Buddhist Institute, but police beat them back with tear gas and club charges.

The rioting was the worst to hit Saigon in current crisis that threatens the life of Ky's nine-month-old government.

Police cordoned off the U.S. Information Service building, one block from the National Assembly. Tear gas floated in clouds over streets used by the demonstrators to reach the heart of town. The demonstrators appeared to be in the 11 to 15 age bracket.

By THOMAS A. REEDY
SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The U.S. Military Command tonight put Saigon's streets, bars and other public places off limits to off-duty American servicemen in an attempt to avert their involvement in the political crisis that has brought Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's regime to the verge of a military showdown with rebels in Dan Nang.

The round-the-clock curfew went into effect at 5 p.m. It will confine Americans to their quarters except for official business in an effort to prevent incidents in this tension-packed capital that might affect U.S.-Vietnamese relations, a spokesman said.

Facing his gravest test in nine months as head of the ruling military junta, Ky mobilized planes and paratroopers to smash what he called a Communist-inspired state of insurrection in Dan Nang against his U.S.-backed government.

As night fell on the capital, police and riot troops moved on 500 demonstrators near Saigon's main Buddhist institute. It was the third action of the day by government forces against student marchers.

Rogers Shows Garland 6th Travel Slides

The sixth grade of Garland School invited Dr. Herbert Rogers to give an illustrated talk on Europe Tuesday, March 29. Dr. Rogers showed slides and told of his tour of seven countries.

Some of the most interesting slides were of West Minister Abbey, the scene around the Seine in Paris, gardens and parks in all the countries visited, and the mountains of Switzerland.

Dr. Rogers pointed out to the children that he was very impressed with the cleanliness of the parks and streets in all the European countries he visited. The visit of Dr. Rogers to the class was arranged to culminate a social studies unit just completed by the group.

Three Killed in Accident at Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—Three persons, including Goose Tatum, Jr., were killed Saturday night in a two-car collision two miles west of Texarkana on U.S. 67.

Tatum, the son of former Harlem Globe Trotter basketball star Goose Tatum, was a member of the Harlem Road Kings basketball team which was slated to play at Mount Pleasant, Tex., Saturday night.

James D. Godwin, 40, and his wife, Lena, 40, both of Texarkana, were also killed.
